THE LIGHT TOWER

TENTH EDITION
Published by
THE SENIOR CLASS
1941
Fort Wayne, Ind.

INTRODUCTORY

The day is drawing to a close. The shades of evening are lowering around us. The time for work will soon be over. But the remaining task is, oh, so great. Around the world, hungry hearts are crying for the bread of life, and sin-sick souls are groaning under their awful bondage. In view of these conditions, we have chosen as our theme those words that ring out as a challenge to Christian youth, "Redeeming the time because the days are evil."

It is our earnest desire that through this book some young man or young woman may be led to dedicate his or her life to the service of the Master.

IN APPRECIATION

In recognition and appreciation of his helpful advice, his thoughtful guidance, and his friendly interest in our Christian lives, we, the Senior Class of 1941, dedicate this year's Light Tower to our Dean, Rev. S. A. Witmer.

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

BETHANY HALL

DOWN RUDISILL BOULEVARD

FOSTER PARK

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

Foster Park, with its swinging bridge, shady trees, and murmuring river, holds a warm spot in the heart of every student who has attended the Fort Wayne Bible Institute. In years to come, the hours spent there will be relived in floods of happy memories.

FORT WAYNE

The beautiful city of Fort Wayne, with its population of 125,000, offers fine opportunities to students who wish to work their way through school.

The Bible Institute is situated in one of the finest residential sections of the city.

The Vision of a New Auditorium-Music Hall

We are fervently hoping that the dream of a new building will soon come true. A greater Bible Institute was a part of the vision of the founders; for in selecting a larger campus than was necessary in their day, they pointed forward to a greater school in the future. Amid sturdy oaks of virginal forest, they erected the first building, which served as a complete unit for more than two decades. The second major unit—Bethany Hall—was added in 1929-30, and the "Annex" in 1937. Now again, all rooms are occupied and larger quarters are urgently needed. But through the vision and foresight of the founders there is plenty of building room for expansion.

The new hall will be a large structure fronting Rudisill Boulevard between Bethany Hall and Indiana Avenue. The front wing will house the School of Music, furnished with studios, classrooms, and practice rooms. The main part of the structure will be a large hall, divided into two sections, one for assembly purposes and the other for physical education. The new building will relieve the present congestion and will greatly enhance the physical equipment of the school.

It is spiritual vision that is making possible this advance. Through vision of a sinking world calling for capable soul-winners, Christian stewards have already given a little more than half of the estimated cost of $85,000. It is through ever-living vision that the building will be erected and the Bible Institute will carry forward her God-given mission.

By the "FAITHFUL GUIDANCE" of instructors whose lives have been fully consecrated to the service of the Master . . . we "ACQUIRE KNOWLEDGE" of the Scriptures and other subjects necessary to a well-rounded education . . . thus preparing us for "CHRISTIAN SERVICE" which we carry on with great joy and blessing . . . while, in the meantime, by participation in "EXTRA ACTIVITIES," we develop strong bodies and build true Christian Character.

By the "FAITHFUL GUIDANCE" of instructors whose lives have been fully consecrated to the service of the Master . . .

Redeeming the Time – Spiritually

EPHESIANS 5:16

Time is an important factor in Christian experience. As it takes years for an acorn to develop into a sturdy oak, so it takes time for a follower of Christ to root deep, to "grow up into Him", and to reach spiritual manhood. However, some develop more rapidly than others, because they are "followers of God as dear children."

Again, as it requires seasons for grain and fruit to come to the harvesting stage, even so it is with spiritual fruit bearing, and maturity in the godly life.

The text does not only clearly indicate that it takes time to develop Christian character, as expressed above, but it also shows the importance of making the best possible use of the time allotted to us. We must take advantage of every opportunity that comes to us.

In order to do this we must, first, be fully assured that we have passed the initial experiences in the Christian life—the new birth, and the baptism with the Holy Spirit; and that we are under the leadership of the Holy Spirit. Then if we obey the following exhortations in the Word of God, we shall be "good and faithful" stewards of the sacred truth, and our time shall be well redeemed:

1. "Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; and walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us." Eph. 5:1,2.
2. "And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith;" and then the apostle mentions seven graces that we must add and abound therein if we want to measure up to God's standard for us. II Pet. 1:5-11.
3. "Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ," II Tim. 2:3.
4. "By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. Not only so, but we glory in tribulation also." Rom. 5:23.
5. "As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God." I Pet. 4:10.
6. "Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward; for ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise. For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry. Heb. 10:35-37.

Redeeming the Time — By Mental Effort

Never before have men been given to thinking about the time as today. What is Time? How is it related to Eternity? These are speculative questions that a few rare minds are disposed to consider: Bergson and Spengler among the philosophers, Barth and Heim among the theologians, and Einstein among the scientists. But most of us are not concerned about metaphysics, and certainly the Apostle Paul when advising the Ephesian Christians to redeem the time was not thinking in terms of philosophy. He was thinking of time as a practical commodity that each one is to use to greatest profit. The original word for time means "a fixed measure." How suggestive! Only a limited amount is given to each.

The Greek word translated "redeem" comes from a verb meaning "to go to the market," that is "to buy up," "to purchase." Time is something to be recovered and exploited, for in the natural course of events it is misused or squandered. This calls for us to improve every opportunity for good.

Only the opportunist thinks success is possible without diligently employing his time. All great men have highly valued time. They have achieved greatness not necessarily by long life, but by improving their time. Mozart died at thirty-five, and David Brainerd finished his memorable work at twenty-nine. The tragedy among students in this day of "time-saving" conveniences is the prodigal waste of time. The tragedy of misspent time is that it can never be recovered. The want ad that some one devised is correct: "Lost: somewhere between sunrise and sunset, two golden hours each set with sixty diamond minutes. No reward is offered for they are lost forever."

Not only is time non-recoverable, but the small amount we have is not exactly known. We know the hour glass is running its course, but we do not know how soon the last particle will have passed from time into eternity. May every student who leaves the sacred halls of the Bible Institute REDEEM his time. May not one be an unworthy, slothful servant. Walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time!

Redeeming the Time—In Every-Day Duties

Time must be of great value to our Creator, for He only gives us one moment at a time. You have read of redeeming the time in the spiritual and the intellectual; now let us think of redeeming the time in the secular. Redeeming the time in the secular brings blessings in the spiritual and in the intellectual. "Know the true value of time; snatch, seize, and enjoy every moment of it. No idleness; no laziness; no procrastination—never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day."

"Time is lent to us by God. It is precious, passing, short, and uncertain." We cannot be too diligent, if we consider that we are accountable as to how we use it. Health, wealth, knowledge, and friendships may be regained, but vanished hours can never be recalled. Let us not give any moment without receiving it in value. We should so discipline our ways that every move of the hand, every step of the foot, every word of the tongue, and every thought of the mind will be of some value to us or to our fellow men.

"As every thread of gold is valuable, so is every moment of time." Time is money at the Bible Institute as well as elsewhere. As money is being spent for our life equipment, we ought to give our "utmost for His highest."

Time is what we need, but alas! how do we use it? How often do we lose time by expectation, lack of distribution, or lack of determination. The surest way of using the precious fragments of time is by a well-arranged schedule. "The more we do, the more we can do; the more busy we are, the more leisure we have."

The way we spend our time is an index to our character. By redeeming the time we become dependable, punctual, attentive, and cooperative. Efficiency and thoroughness are also necessary spokes in the wheel of time. "Our yesterdays follow us; they constitute our life, and they give character and force and meaning to our present deeds."

When Dorothy rings the dinner gong,
You just cannot stay hungry long.

When Bible I lets out at noon,
He makes his way for home right soon.

As you'll imagine by the looks,
Miss Leitner knows what's in the books.

Not a speck of dirt is found,
When Mother Lugibihl's around.

Kept by His love, safe in His fold,
Our spirits never shall grow old.

I like the spring with flowers gay,
It drives the cares of life away.

Get ready, Elkhart, here we come
Unless old Lizzie's on the bum.

Though she's been with us but a year,
She, to our hearts, has been made dear.

More precious far than gems or gold,
Are words of wisdom from the old.

FACULTY BRIEFS

REV. J. E. "DADDY" RAMSEYER

"Sweeter as the days go by."

In spite of his age it is not unusual to see him out in the back yard of his home raking leaves or making garden. His is a life of activity.

REV. HARVEY MITCHELL

By the time he cares for his family, meets the demands of his pastorate, and collects jokes for Bible I class, we suspect that our brilliant young professor from Grabill keeps himself busy.

REV. P. L. (UNCLE PETE) EICHER

"We marvel at his rugged endurance."

When not busy trying to balance the budget "Uncle Pete" likes to participate in athletics with the boys. And, believe me, he presents some stiff competition.

REV. L. R. RINGENBERG

"Haste makes waste."

His chief joy is lecturing to students on the art of rearing a family.

MISS BERTHA LEITNER

"Admired by all for her deep spirituality."

Her chief interest: missions.

Her hobby: preparing long examinations.

MISS MARTHA AMSTUTZ

Her ability is to find dust; her habit is finding dust; her pet word is "Dust."

"Flashing smile, twinkling eye
Sweet disposition, that's why!"

MISS LILLIAN ZELLER

"Faithful, constant, firm and true."

Her deep Christian life is the result of much meditation upon the Word, and a close walk with the Lord.

DEAN WITMER

Ability—Laughing at stale jokes.

Habit—Playing with his glasses.

Delight—Confounding the students with his words.

Favorite food—Mush.

Pet word—No!

MRS. SMITH

"Behind a sturdy schoolroom desk
The Greek professor stands."

She also "stands" when the winds blow—the wind of the English VI students reciting Monday morning at 8:00.

MELVINA BASINGER

"She lives to help others."

She has proved such a fine nurse, we boys almost enjoy being ill.

REV. B. F. LEIGHTNER

"Chapter and verse, please."

An understanding counsellor in matters of life and doctrine.

MISS DOROTHY ROTHFUSS

We know Dorothy is proud of her work after digging up such a good telephone salutation, "Culinary Department"; and why not? Where could we get a better cook?

MR. IRA GERIG

Teaching music, learning funny stories, meeting obligations at Elkhart. What a busy life!

MR. C. A. GERBER

Chief occupation: Telling stories.

Pet phrase: "That reminds me of . . ."

Pet peeve: Singing off key.

Biggest difficulty: Being seen.

MISS BIXEL

"Just a tiny bit of sunshine."

We wonder how so much music can be contained in so small a person.

. . . we "ACQUIRE KNOWLEDGE" of the Scriptures and other subjects necessary to a well-rounded education . . .

Aflame for Christ

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." These words of our Master are words which we as His followers should heed in these dark and sinful days.

We, the Class of '41, feel we have been highly privileged to spend these years of preparation in the Bible Institute. They have been years of learning at the feet of Jesus, which have resulted in the molding of our Christian lives. We have chosen as our class motto, "Aflame for Christ." Never before in the history of mankind has the need arisen for God's children to be on fire as it has in these last days. As the Apostle Paul was ready to preach the Gospel to those at Rome, so we are ready to face a war-torn, envy-filled world with the Message of Life.

Christ has put light into us as His children, and He does not intend that light to be hid. God requires of us nothing less than habitual holiness. Candles are not lit to be looked at, but that something else may be seen by them. Even so, we as followers of Christ are given light that we might go forth to radiate the Lord Jesus to lost humanity. It is our duty and utmost desire to be aflame for Christ as we leave school. It is not enough to be Christian only to ourselves; we must be so before God and men.

May God grant all members of the Class of '41 hearts aflame with the love of Christ as they are thrust into the midst of a cold and indifferent world. If we are not warming the world with our light, the world will be freezing us. Only as we are kept on fire for Christ will we be usable material in the Master's harvest field. "Aflame for Christ" is the heart desire of each member of our class—may our heart's desire always be a reality!

OUR DAILY PRAYER

Stir me, O stir me, Lord, I care not how,
But stir my heart in passion for the world;
Stir me to give, to go, but most to pray;
Stir 'til the blood-red banner be unfurled
O'er lands that still in heathen darkness lie,
O'er deserts where no cross is lifted high.

Stir me, O stir me, Lord, 'til all my heart
Is filled with a strong compassion for these souls,
'Til Thy compelling "must" drives me to prayer;
'Til Thy constraining love reach to the poles,
Far North and South in burning deed desire;
'Til East and West are caught in love's great fire.

Stir me, O Lord! Thy heart was stirred
By love's intensest fire, 'til Thou didst give Thine only Son, Thy best beloved One,
E'en to the dreadful cross that I might live:
Stir me to give myself back to Thee
That Thou canst give Thyself again through me.

Stir me, O stir me, Lord; for I can see
Thy glorious triumph day begin to break;
The dawn already gilds the Eastern sky
O Church of Christ, awake! awake!
O stir us, Lord, as heralds of the day!
The night is past, our King is on His way!

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Roy Whittum	Co-Chairman
Anna Laughbaum	Secretary
David Clark	Treasurer

During the early part of the second semester of 1940, God began to speak to different individuals of our school about the need of the youth of Fort Wayne. As God continued to speak, our Dean began to work. After much prayer and counsel, it was decided that the students would sponsor a city-wide youth conference. A committee consisting of six students, three representatives from different churches of the city, and two advisers from our faculty was appointed. This committee was in charge of making plans for the first annual city-wide youth conference. As much prayer was sent up to the throne of grace, we feel confident that God's hand was in the origin of this important movement. The sole aim of the conference was to present to the youth of Fort Wayne the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

CONFERENCE

October 18, 19, and 20 will long be remembered by the students as a time of great spiritual refreshing, for it was on these days that the first annual city-wide youth conference, a student project, was held. The aim of the conference was to reap a harvest of young people for Christ. Our slogan was "American Youth For Christ."

All of the services were held in the Auditorium of the Central High School. Dr. L. R. Marston, nationally known speaker, author, psychologist, and teacher, formerly president of Greenville College, now a bishop of the Free Methodist Church, was our speaker. His God-given messages were indeed inspirational and very helpful. A number of young people made definite decisions to follow the Lord as a result of God's blessing through Dr. Marston's messages.

Mr. Cyril Reid, a young people's song leader from Wheaton College, was in charge of the music. Special music was rendered at each service. The Plymouth Congregational Church Junior Choir sang on Friday night. On Saturday night, the Fort Wayne Gospel Temple Band furnished the special music.

We were privileged by the officials of the city to have a parade through the business section of the city on Saturday afternoon. What a testimony to see 250 young Christians parading through the city singing "Onward Christian Soldiers!" Following the parade, there was an inspirational service in which three young people spoke.

Sunday afternoon, four discussion groups were held under the leadership of very capable leaders. Following these discussions, Dr. Marston gave a short message. Sunday evening as he gave his last message on the theme, "Fields Already White," hearts were moved to let God have full sway. Dr. Marston's closing address was a climax to three days of spiritual blessing to the youth of our city.

We trust that each year these youth conferences will increase in their influence, reaching even greater numbers of young people and winning them to the Saviour.

OUR THEME SONG

We are a faithful gleanng band
And labor at our Lord's command,
Unyielding, loyal, tried and true
For lo! the reapers are but few,
Behold the waving harvest field
Abundant with a golden yield;
And hear the Lord of harvest say
To all: "Go reap for me to-day."

Chorus:

To the harvest field away,
For the Master calleth;
There is work for all to-day,
Ere the darkness falleth,
Swiftly do the moments fly,
Harvest days are going by,
Going, Going, Going, Going by.

OUR MISSIONARY

REV. CLAYTON STEINER

Laboring in Peru, South America

"The missionary spirit is the endeavor to carry out Christ's last command, 'Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel.'"—C. I. Birkey.

"The human need is even greater today, for there are more Pagans today than when Carey left for India."—S. A. Witmer.

"Even as the law of gravity must be considered in the physical world, so must faith be considered in the spiritual realm."—Paul Updike.

"'Light obeyed bringeth light; Light rejected bringeth night.'"—Mrs. Hinkey.

"The heathen know nothing but hunger; they are the ones who appreciate most."—Lulu Irvine.

"No one that feels called to the mission field should feel wobbly at the knees (in these times)."—Rev. Brooks.

"They that would have this faith (as recorded in Hebrews 11) must be prepared to be strangely ostracized."

"One smell you won't get on our fields, and that is the smell of modernism."—Rev. T. J. Bach.

"Never be afraid of a hard trip, but be afraid of not being filled with the Holy Spirit."—T. J. Bach.

"Too much cannot be made of anything if the vision is clear, and God's current is on."—C. L. Eicher.

"God willing, may we have more men who will obey when the urge comes."—C. L. Eicher.

"What makes the South American people what they are? Their religion, for men's laws are based on their conception of God."—Rev. Montgomery.

MUSIC

Someone has said, "Music is the link that connects the soul of man with God." This is seen throughout the Scriptures; mention of music is made as early as the fourth chapter of Genesis. In connection with the children of Israel crossing the Red Sea, we have the song of Moses. Whenever Israel won a victory, she celebrated with music and song, the Song of Deborah and Barak being an example of this. Music was used for worship; it was used at festivities. Heaven itself will be filled with music. "And I heard a voice from heaven as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder; and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps." Rev. 14:2.

Music changes man's emotions. The saying, "Music soothes the savage breast," is true. When the evil spirit came upon Saul, he asked for David to play the harp. The music from the harp caused the evil spirit to flee, and all was well with Saul. Saul is no different from men today. Men's hearts are savage; they are troubled and sad.

In the light of this, music is of great importance in Christian service. Our school meets this need, offering one of the most complete courses in music. The course includes piano, organ, voice, harmony, composition, hymnology, theory, sight singing, conducting, normal training, and group singing. Many students have gone forth to bless the world with music.

Standing: Mildred Stafford, Dorothea Martig, Geraldine Roth, Fred Rabel, Dan Demmin, Robert Dye, Prof. Gerber, Miss Bixel, Prof. Gerig, Billy Lewis, Clyde Collins, Stanley Rupp, Elbert Speckien, Dorthey Slabaugh, Stella Augsburg. ## SPECIAL CHORUS

"Praise ye the Lord: for it is good to sing praises unto our God."— Psalm 147:1.

Every Thursday evening from 7:30 to 9:00 o'clock, a group of students gather in the chapel to sing anthems of praise to our blessed Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. We rejoice because the Lord has given us a new song to sing. The chorus is under the direction of Professor C. A. Gerber, and accompanied by Miss Bixel. We receive great spiritual benefit as well as training; for all our classics are Scriptures put to music, telling of God's goodness and greatness. The one purpose of our chorus is to bring glory and honor to the Lord Jesus Christ and to witness of His redeeming grace in our lives. Our prayer is that our organization will ever remain a shining light, radiating His glory.

THE WOMEN'S CHORUS

"Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving." Ps. 147:7.

The prayer of each member of the Women's Chorus has been that our singing be praise unto the Lord and spiritual inspiration to listening hearts.

This group of sixteen young women, directed by Professor C. A. Gerber, and accompanied by Miss Ruth Bixel, enjoyed the high privilege of witnessing for Christ and representing the Bible Institute during a ten-day tour of Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan. Several concerts were also given in nearby churches during the spring months.

Very precious to our hearts were the devotional periods which we had on the bus during our tour, and the prayer meetings before each service, in which God prepared us for joyful singing from within. God graciously met us. To Him be honor and glory.

MEN'S CHORUS

To the group of twenty-two men who compose the men's chorus, this organization has proved to be a source of blessing and the means of expressing to others far and wide the devotion which they bear for their Master.

The highlight of the year for the chorus is the spring tour, an event which carries the organization into various parts of the country, and into churches of various denominations. This year a chosen group of sixteen young men, under the capable direction of Professor Ira Gerig, presented a series of sacred concerts through the states of Ohio and Pennsylvania, witnessing through song and testimony to the redeeming and sanctifying power of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The chorus has endeavored in all its services to give a program not for entertainment alone, but for the spiritual edification of its hearers. We trust many have found spiritual help through the ministrations of the chorus.

THE GOSPEL TRACT TEAM

The Gospel Tract Team has a ministry which is sadly neglected by the average Christian; yet one that has been used of the Lord to reach many men who have fallen into Satan's cruel snare. Every Saturday night we gather to ask the Lord's blessing; then we go out two by two, even as the Lord Jesus Christ sent out the seventy. While passing out tracts, we have often given our personal testimonies, and explained the way of Salvation by grace more fully. Is it worth while? Wonderfully so, for "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth; it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Isaiah 55:11.

C. C. C. CAMP

"Training for service, and service in training" is a motto applicable to innumerable and varied training schools. The spiritual eye paraphrases and reads, "Preparing to work with Christ, and working with Christ while preparing." The C.C.C. Camp affords an avenue for training. Weekly the Word is taught, and in response six young men have professed conversion. In the camp, education, nationality, and training mean little. These boys are looking for sincerity. It is our task to awaken in these hearts a concern for their eternal estate. We pray and work to the end that more of these boys—men of tomorrow—might come to know, through experience, the Master Character Builder, our Lord.

WESLEYAN MISSION

As the servants of Jesus Christ, we count it a great privilege to enter every door of opportunity that opens for service. One of these doors is the Wesleyan Methodist Mission. Some of us teach Sunday school classes; and others minister in the evening services, which are entirely in charge of the students. We have not seen the work grow rapidly, but we praise God for His faithfulness in blessing the work with the salvation of souls. In this place we have found real joy in serving Christ.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHING

We students who are privileged to teach Sunday school classes in various churches of the city from Sunday to Sunday feel that the practical work to which we have been assigned is a ministry full of much opportunity and responsibility.

The teaching methods, of course, vary according to the age grouping of the respective classes, but as children and young people of high school age constitute the greatest majority of the classes, we find that the visual method of teaching by object lessons makes the lesson interesting and stamps spiritual truths more indelibly on young hearts. It is our aim to be faithful in giving out, in the best possible way, the pure, unadulterated Word of God, and thereby lay a foundation for belief in Christ for the unsaved and at the same time ground Christians more firmly in the faith.

SUPPER DEVOTIONS

Each evening, our meal is closed with a period of fellowship both in praise and prayer. The devotions vary each night. Sometimes we form a circle of fellowship around the walls of the dining room and tell of the victories recently won. Then there is often a period of intercession when needs are prayed for. The students love to sing praises to their Redeemer, and many times our devotions are spent in singing the old Gospel hymns which renew our faith and encourage us onward. At different times we are privileged to have guests or former students with us, and they contribute heartily to our devotions. We are thankful for these few moments each evening when our hearts are stirred anew to serve and trust the living God.

5:00 PRAYER MEETING

Each evening from five to five-thirty students gather in the chapel for a missionary prayer meeting. We take a different portion of the world each day and are informed by prayer leaders as to the needs of each part of the world. We pray for our heathen friends who dwell in darkness without Christ, for the missions and missionaries who are trying to reach them with the Gospel, as well as for special needs on the mission fields of the world. Will you join us in the fellowship of prayer that Christ's Great Commission will be completed during this generation?

HOME VISITATION WORK

It is a joy to be co-laborers with the Lord in home visitation work in the community of the Wesleyan Methodist Mission. Our group goes out once every two weeks. Every time a door is opened, it is a new opportunity to witness for the Lord and to seek to win a lost soul for Jesus. An invitation to the service is our means of approach. Our souls have been blessed, by the testimonies of the few Christians we meet—but also saddened by the darkness of sin. We have not seen many visible results to encourage us; but we continue cheerfully in our work, confident that the Lord will reward us according to our faithfulness.

JAIL TEAM

We, who are on the jail team, praise the Lord for the privilege we have to carry to these men in prison the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Lord has blessed the efforts put forth at the county jail, and many needy souls have been won for Jesus Christ. Many of these men can only come to one service, but we are thankful for the privilege of sowing the seed. Many Gospels of John and tracts are given to these prisoners, and we trust God will quicken His Word unto the salvation of these men.

- HELEN ZORB—"I am living on the mountain underneath a cloudless sky."

SENTENCE SERMONETTES

"Count the cost, young people, and then by the grace of God go forward!"

MISS DIRKSON.

"Our most important calling is to be saints."

"Jesus didn't come to regulate sin; He came to destroy it."

EDISON HABEGGAR.

"Perhaps some of you are the answer to somebody's prayer."

REV. J. H. WOODWARD.

"Wherever you see two extremes in theology the truth is usually in between."

"The capacity in which the Holy Spirit comes to a person depends upon the capacity to receive Him."

"Where faith demands action and you do not act, your claim of faith is false."

"If man had not been able to sin, he could never be holy."

DR. JOHN PAUL.

"God is never ahead of time, never behind time; but He is always on time."

REV. J. E. RAMSEYER.

"Christ is the highest among the mighty, and the mightiest among the holy."

"There is no hope for a person who doesn't learn that he doesn't know."

"The lowest rung in the ladder of God's grace is higher than the highest in the world."

"There are some holiness people who have a lot of holes in their holiness."

"You may not have victory over everything, but you can have victory in everything."

"We hang on for dear life—to nothing."

"Jonah found himself inside the whale; but there is one encouraging thing, he found a mourner's bench."

REV. J. S. WOOD.

"Fear God and you need not fear anyone else."

"There is no room for defeat in the Christian's life."

"Missions are the moral equivalent of war."

"There is power in the Spirit to overcome the body."

REV. JOHN DAVEY.

"There is not a thing in theology that is dry except to a stupid mind."

DR. TURBEVILLE.

Words of Wisdom from Dr. Turbeville

"We get more inspiration from our sermons when we put more perspiration into them."

"You can never know the beauty of a rose until you know in your heart, the Rose of Sharon."

"The Greatest truth in the universe—'God is love!'"

"You cannot explain any great thing."

"The man who cannot speak out of experience about the things of Christianity had better keep quiet."

"No man is fit to speak in the name of Christ if he is afraid to speak what he believes."

"If you try to live more religion than you have, you are going to have a hard time."

"If Christ is small enough for our heads, He is too small for our hearts."

"All great things in this world have in them an element of mystery."

"What Christ said is of no particular importance to us apart from what He did."

"You cannot put the principles of Christ into life until you have them in your heart."

"If you ever accomplish anything in life, it will cost you something."

"If you can talk about anything else, you can talk about Christ if he dwells within. You can't love and not talk about it."

"No man is good until he is God's. If a man does not have God, he is bad."

"No person loves you unless he is drastic in his demands upon your life." "Love demands quality."

"Your Christian experience can be no higher than your conception of Deity."

"The same love that would lift you if you accept it, will sink you into the awful quagmire of eternal ruin and despair if you reject it."

"If our Christ is small enough to be comprehended by these little minds of ours, He can never solve problems any deeper than that."

"Theology is profound, and a little man can't study it."

"Jesus Christ can take the most simple language and give us the most sublime truths that human minds can wrestle with."

ALUMNI TESTIMONIES

1909—DERSIE QUINCE—"He is faithful that promised"—Heb. 10:23. I praise the Lord for Jesus, His Word, and His promises. For every problem there has been a promise; and when faithful in claiming them, He has been faithful in proving them. Praise the Lord for such a wonderful Savior!"

1910—SAMUEL C. WITMER—"I am praising God more now than ever that He permitted me to study His word in the Institute under teachers that believed and taught the whole Bible."

1911—MENNO S. HIRSCHY—"Praise God for the blessings received at the Bible Institute and for the fellowship with classmates representing varied walks of life: missionaries, pastors, doctor, nurses, authors, home mission workers, and those in secular work. 'That I may know Him' (our motto) is precious as we live and move in a world of trouble and turmoil."

1912—NORMAN HIRSCHY—"Those were three blessed years at Bible Institute. Twenty-nine years have passed since then—years of trial, testing, triumph. Of the Word we then studied and since have studied and proclaimed; we can say with Joshua (23:14), 'Not one thing hath failed thereof'. His grace is still sufficient. Praise His precious name!"

1913—MRS. SAMUEL SCHUMACHER (Nee Lillie Roth)—"The days that I spent at the Bible Institute were very precious days, and have meant much to me ever since. I praise God for a school that still teaches the whole Word of God. May the Lord continue to bless this dear old Bible Institute."

1914—JOHN E. LAUBY—"I always shall have a warm spot in my heart for the Fort Wayne Bible Institute. The spiritual atmosphere and the fundamental teaching of the Word put a foundation under my feet that abides to this day. May the Institute continue to teach the 'faith that was once for all delivered to the saints' coupled with Holy Ghost experiences; and it will go on 'conquering and to conquer'."

1915—W. VANCLIEF YAGGY—"Greetings in the name of our unchanging and faithful Lord. It is hard to realize that twenty-six years have passed by since the class of 1915 last trod the halls of the Institute. Our class was one of the smallest to graduate, and our ranks have been thinned fifty percent down through the years by the promotion of three of our number to His presence."

1916—ARTHUR F. ALLBRO—"The Fort Wayne Bible Institute was the answer to my spiritual need at the time I enrolled. It was the spiritual atmosphere that burned into my spiritual fiber the stabilizing qualities so necessary for the establishment of my spiritual life. Friendships made in this atmosphere have proved deeper and more enduring than all others. May this atmosphere ever pervade her halls."

1917—JOHN C. CLASPER—"The three years (1914-1917) spent in the B.T.S. were most profitable. I enjoyed the fine spiritual atmosphere and Christian fellowship. The fundamental teaching of God's Word, and the practical service were such as to help fit me for over twenty years of service in two pastorates."

1918—MISS SOPHIA PAULEY—"I will never regret the time I spent at the Bible Institute. It was there that I became settled in my Christian experience and strengthened in my faith life. I praise God for the abundant provision He has made for all who will come to Him."

1919—MRS. P. M. ACOSTA—(Nee E. Luella Benz)—"I shall never cease to thank my Heavenly Father for the three precious years which He permitted me to spend at the Bible Institute. They were not only years filled with study and work, but years filled with greater experiences and of a deeper and closer fellowship with Jesus, my Saviour."

1920—RUTH REDIGER—"Our motto 'Jehovah-nissi'. So far as I can learn, thirteen of the fifteen are now engaged in part or full time Christian work. Five are carrying the Gospel to darkened hearts in India, China, Africa, and South America. The rest are spreading the Gospel in the homeland. Praise God!"

1921—DANIEL E. RAMSEYER—"Twenty short years have slipped by since we left the Bible Training School—now the Bible Institute. We spent ten years in the Lord's service in Nebraska, one year in Wisconsin, and are starting our fifth year in the West Baptist Church of Bay City, Michigan. The Gospel is still the power of God. It has marvelously transformed lives and homes here, for which we praise the Lord."

1923—ROY J. BIRKEY—"Just what B. I. has meant to me during eighteen years of service, both at home and abroad, would be difficult for me to say, because it became a part of me. I do not hesitate to heartily recommend it as the most acceptable place for youth to prepare for Christian service."

1925—MARION E. GROSH—"Praise God for answering prayer and fulfilling His promises. Conference has just assigned me to the Harriett M. B. C. Church, near Hillsboro, Ohio. This is a small country church in a difficult but needy field. But God is able to finish to His glory what He has begun. Pray for me."

1926—MYRTLE E. WISHART—"For the fifteen blessed and fruitful years which have sped by since my graduation, I fervently praise God. The Lord has become increasingly real to me, leading me from victory unto victory in my evangelistic work. My earnest desire, 'to be always abounding in the work of the Lord'."

1927—J. J. KLOPFENSTEIN—"Our word of praise, since our graduation, is 'Great is thy faithfulness'. As we have sought, these fourteen years, to work in our appointed corner of His great vineyard, in pastorates and evangelistic services, we have often proved the exceeding greatness of His promises and faithfulness."

1928—Q. J. EVEREST—"In the first Light Tower publication by our class of 1928, I inserted the verse, 'I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me'. During these thirteen years of pastoral, evangelistic and radio ministry, God has definitely verified His word. We are joyful in our King."

1929—TILLMAN HABEGGAR—"I shall always look back to the Bible Institute with a note of praise and thanksgiving to God for the clear testimony of the Institute. The foundation of Christian doctrines received there and the teaching and practice of prayer in the Institute have helped me to lead many souls into a clear experience of salvation, sanctification, and healing for the body, and to make known the blessed hope of the near return of our Lord."

1930—MRS. LOYAL RINGENBERG—"At present I have the happy and high calling of being a mother to Lenore and William Carey. The Lord supplies the strength as I give 'all-out-aid' to my husband who contends for the faith at the Institute. We are happy to be 'workers together with Him'."

1931—H. E. WISWELL—Since graduating from B. I. (1931), the Lord has been so gracious in His care, guidance and grace that a testimony of so few words can but sound a note of heart-felt thanksgiving. But to sum it all up into one statement, I am glad to exclaim with the poet: 'Great is Thy faithfulness'."

1932—CYRIL H. EICHER—"I am deeply grateful to the Lord for the spiritual help and encouragement I received while attending the Fort Wayne Bible Institute. I look back with fond memories to the times of fellowship, instruction, and service during those years. Thank God for an institution which is still true to God's unchanging Word."

1933—NELLIE E. THUM—"Upon entering Bible School, I was told I could know just as definitely when God sanctified me as when He saved me. Something within held me back. I sought the Lord to let me die, kill me dead, and break the chains on the inside. He did it. Bless His name!"

1935—RANDALL M. RICE—" 'Hitherto hath the Lord helped us.' We praise the Lord for His unfailing faithfulness: He has remarkably answered prayer; He has outstandingly manifested loving kindness and tender mercies; He has given grace for every trial; He is a present living reality; and the future is as bright as His promises."

1936—ROBERT C. STRUBHAR—"The joy of my life is to serve the Lord. For His grace and goodness to me, I praise Him. I have found Him to be a mighty Conqueror, who never lost a battle; a faithful Guide, who knows the way; and a trustworthy Friend, who never betrays my confidences."

1937—HOWARD G. EICHER—"The words describing our day are 'Wars and wickedness' with all their accompaniments. The masses are spiritually unenlightened, Christ rejectors. I thank God for the ministry and mission of the Bible Institute, indeed a 'Tower of Light'. The many who have passed her halls of Bible training are fortunate, and the days ahead afford us great opportunity to be lights in a darkening world."—Romans 1:16.

1938—KENNETH GEIGER—"God has certainly been good during the few years since the Class of '38 graduated from the Bible Institute. Reports of blessing and victory and usefulness have come from every member of the class. We feel that God has a place for every one of us in His service and by the grace of God shall go on serving Him until He shall call us home."

1939—NORMAN C. MOSER—"The Lord has done great things for me whereof I am glad. I praise Him for saving and keeping me, and for calling me into His service. I praise Him, too, for courage to 'press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus'."

1940—KENT WELTY—" 'Praise the Lord, O my Soul'. We have much reason to rejoice in God. He has been a Designer who has our lives mapped out, a Guide who has taught our feet which path to tread, and a Father who has opened His storehouse. Bless His holy name."

On January thirty-first
When in the door the seniors burst
There sat the Dean in stocking feet,
And he was quite dumbfounded.

His feet went up; he dropped his chin;
And turned around with silly grin.
The seniors at the open door
Were shouting, "Happy Birthday."
